INFORMATION/ REGISTRATION

WORKSHOP – LE(S) COMMUN(S)

CONTEXT

Le Signe, centre national du graphisme has invited three graphic design entities to propose a remote workshop, with the ambition of addressing the "Commons" in the current context posed by the sanitary crisis.

The minimal definition of "common" is thus being a shared resource that is collectively managed and safeguarded by a community, by the rules it induces or establishes. The commons are at the same time resources and a community of usefulness; usefulness encompassing the notions of sharing, the right to use and the obligation to render.

The problem statement of commons is ruled by a circularity established by the three fields: giving --> receiving --> rendering.

Sébastien Marchal, Atelier Téméraire, common-interest invite you to register as of now!

PARTICIPATION

Call for participation: from 15 to 18 April.

In order to launch this reflection, le Signe has invited common-interest, Sébastien Marchal and Atelier Téméraire to lead a group of ten participants each to work on a focus developed by their own work, graphic design practice and urges.

Registrations will be taken by order of reception. However, and in so as to form heterogeneous groups, le Signe reserves the right to arbitrate to build up the groups. Please mention your choices in the order of priority. If you are interested by only one or two workshop, please only mention these.

The workshop is open to graphic design professionals and students. For student, an educational level corresponding to third year studies after baccalauréat is required. Exchanges will take place by email and video-conference. Communication software skills and a solid internet connection are required. The participation in the workshop is free of charge.
